

Dennis Vanneste

Creative visualization

Highly creative and pragmatic 3D Visualization professional with a strong background in Industrial Product Design. Specializing in creating photorealistic 3D renders and cinematic visuals that blend design sensitivity with advanced visualization techniques. Proven ability to capture atmosphere, emotion, and detail to help architects, designers, and companies bring their vision to life with clarity and impact. Dedicated to problem-solving, creativity, and honesty in collaboration.

Contact

+34 672 188 771

dennis@somedaystudio.me

Barcelona, Spain (Belgian born)

Education

Industrial Product Design

Hogeschool Kortrijk

College, Kortrijk

Graduated: June 2009

Soft Skills

- Attention to detail
- Time Management
- Creative problem-solving
- Communication
- Adaptability & Learning Agility

Hard Skills

- Blender
- Unreal Engine
- Davinci Resolve
- Adobe Ps, Ai, Id
- Affinity
- Sketchup
- 3D Studio Max
- Octane

Professional Experience

3D Visualization Specialist & Project Lead

X2O Bathroom Company (Belgium)

June 2017 – December 2023

- Spearheaded the creation of various necessary documentation, including technical manuals.
- Managed new projects from initial concept to final delivery, ensuring alignment with commercial and design goals.
- Led initiatives for improving customer experience projects, leveraging visualization to communicate product value effectively.
- Created commercial backgrounds and visual contexts for products, enhancing marketing materials.

Creative Director

SomedayStudio

January 2024 – Current

- Established and operate a specialized studio creating high-impact 3D visualization and cinematic content.
- Responsible for concept development, advanced 3D rendering, post-production, and client management.
- Successfully delivered a variety of creative projects, including multiple interior design projects, complex animation projects for theatre plays and cities, and engaging adverts for comedy shows.